The Charles and Salome Reymann Foundation serves people with developmental disabilities, their families and caregivers, and the dedicated people who educate and support them.

Your support helps us make this positive impact:

Scholarships

Awarded more than 100 college students studying special education at The University of Akron Reymann Foundation scholarships.

Awarded scholarships in excess of $200,000 to high school students with disabilities at Our Lady of the Elms.

Retreats for the Disabled and their Families

Underwrites the annual Faith & Light Retreat,

held at the Loyola Retreat House, Ohio's only retreat that brings individuals with disabilities and their families together for spiritual renewal and to share experiences and concerns.

Transition Services

Partnered with St. Vincent-St. Mary High School to develop their Transition-To-Work program, helping students with developmental disabilities build skills to secure meaningful post-graduation employment.

Created The Urban Youth Transition Center at The University of Akron to provide a pathway to employment for high school students with developmental disabilities

Housing

Provided safe, supervised housing for hundreds of people with developmental disabilities, enabling them to live with dignity in homes supported by The Charles and Salome Reymann Foundation.
